MR. DULLES:

a. Directed DD/P to ensure that the Agency takes all possible steps to cover the situation in [REDACTED] He was assured by Messrs. Bissell and Helms that this is being done, however, our activities would again be reviewed. The Director noted that reporting on the kind of situation that now exists in [REDACTED] is one which is by and large strictly within the purview and capabilities of CIA and he wanted to be doubly sure that everything possible is done.

MR. AMORY:

Reported that the briefing for the Rooney Committee which plans to go to Russia in the near future had gone off well. He said, however, that it had pointed up the fact that while we have experts on the USSR, their knowledge of the locations of churches, restaurants, hotels, etc., is not up to date since by and large none of them have been allowed in the Soviet Union. He said he would urge that on some appropriate occasion the Director press the Department of State to
